Jabez Gosney Speculates in Chairs.

—On Wednesday evening Benjamin Workman, who resides about two miles from Roseby's Rock, arrived in the city with about a dozen cane-seated chairs of his own manufacture, which he desired to sell. In the course of the evening he fell in with Jabez Gosney, a veteran bammer, and the two made a night of it, at Workman's expense. After lodging in the police court room with his new found friend, Workman announced his intention of starting out to sell his chairs. Gosney volunteered to assist him, and the offer was cheerfully accepted. The chairs were evenly divided between the two, and they made a start. Workman disposed of his chairs before evening, and began to look for his partner, but without success. Finally, late in the afternoon, he found Gosney snoczing the happy hours away in a cell in the lockup. Gosney was too drunk to give any account of himself, and no money was found upon his person. Workman is still in the city, lingering about the lockup in the hope that when Jabez gets sober he will rise and explain his experience in the chair business. JABEZ GOSNEY SPECULATES IN CHAIBS

MACK TO THE FORE.—Manager Mack, of the late Theatre Comique, is once more breathing the free air of liberty. Yesterday morning his brother, Mr. W. O. McCluskey, paid his fine and he was discharged from the City Prison. Mack immediately went before Justice Wm. Phillips, with his counsel, Mr. Jo. Woods, and waived an examination of the State and waived an examination of the State charge of selling intoxicating beverages without license. The Justice required him to give bond in the sum of $100 to insure his appearsnoe at the next term of the County Court, and Mr. D. Z. Phillips went security for him in that amount. John is now at liberty, and announces his intention of reopening his "Theatre Komeke's as soon as practicable. It is understood that the United States authorities will await the action of the County Court before commencing proceedings against him.
